Song of Gathering and Preparation

The people of God always sang as they ascended the hill in Jerusalem up to the temple to worship (see Psalms 120-134). We, as well, prepare our hearts, minds, and bodies for worship by singing about the God we serve.

Oh! Great is Our God

Words and Music by Brian Eichelberger
©2012 E On The Eye Chart, Songs From The Penalty Box (both Admin by Music Services, Inc.), used by permission, CCLI# 1693489

Oh! Great is our God, so we should worship greatly
No song is too loud, no orchestra too stately
To hail the majesty of our King
So lift your voices loud as we sing

Oh! Great is our God, so let our songs be endless
So awesome his ways, how could we comprehend them
So we will make it known to our kids
And we will sing about the gracious gifts you give

We will sing your praise
And pour forth your fame
We will bless your name
Let everyone give thanks,
Because our God is great

Oh! Great is our God, and we cannot contain it
We sing from our souls, affected by his greatness
His mercy covers all that he's made
Showing his glory and his grace

We will sing your praise
And pour forth your fame
We will bless your name
Let everyone give thanks,
Because our God is great
(repeat)

Call to Worship

We read God's Word, the Bible, together. It reveals to us who God is and what He expects of us.

Joel 2:23, 26-32 (ESV)

Be glad, O children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God, for he has given the early rain for your vindication; he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the latter rain, as before...

You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God and there is none else. And my people shall never again be put to shame. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit. And I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and awesome day of the Lord comes. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved. For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the Lord has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the Lord calls.

Prayer of Adoration and Confession – John Tucker

We pray together praising God for who He really is (Adoration) and admitting our inability to live up to what He expects of us (Confession).

Assurance of Pardon

We again read God's Word together and are reminded that mercy and grace are freely given to all who have faith in Jesus Christ.

Psalm 16:5-11 (ESV)

The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot. The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance. I bless the Lord who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me. I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken. Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure. For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, or let your holy one see corruption. You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Worship Through Giving

We respond to the good news of God's mercy and grace for us in Jesus by giving generously to the work of this church and the kingdom of God.

Lord Most High

by Don Harris and Gary Sadler, ©1996 Integrity's Hosanna! Music, used by permission, CCLI# 1693489

From the ends of the earth (echo)
From the depths of the sea (echo)
From the heights of the heavens (echo)
Your name be praised.

From the hearts of the weak (echo)
From the shouts of the strong (echo)
From the lips of all people (echo)
This song we raise, Lord.

Throughout the endless ages
You will be crowned with praises, Lord Most High.
Exalted in every nation, sovereign of all creation,
Lord Most High, be magnified.

Praise and Celebration

Our response to God's free grace is celebratory worship. We express our praise to God for who he is and what he has done for us.

The King of Love my Shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never
I nothing lack if I am his, and he is mine forever
And he is mine forever

Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul he leadeth
And where the verdant pastures grow with food celestial feedeth

Never failing, ruler of my heart
Everlasting, lover of my soul
On the mountain high or in the valley low
The King of Love my Shepherd is
The King of Love my Shepherd is

Lost and foolish off I strayed, but yet in love he sought me
And on his shoulder gently laid, and home rejoicing brought me

In death's dark veil I fear no ill, with thee, dear Lord, beside me
Thy rod and staff my comfort still, thy cross before to guide me

Never failing, ruler of my heart…

Oh, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Oh, Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Never failing, ruler of my heart… (2x)

And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never
Good Shepherd, may I sing your praise within your house forever
Within your house forever

Confession of Faith

As an expression of our faith in Jesus Christ in solidarity with his people, we declare the substance of what we believe.

From the Heidelberg Catechism:

Q. 33. Why is he called God's "only Son" when we also are God's children?

A. Because Christ alone is the eternal, natural Son of God. We, however, are adopted children of God adopted by grace through Christ.

Q. 34. Why do you call him "our Lord"?

A. Because not with gold or silver, but with his precious blood he has redeemed us from sin and from the power of the devil, and has bought us, body and soul, to be his very own.

Receiving New Members

As was the case for believers in the Old and New Testaments, we are called to publicly confess our faith in the grace of God, to participate in the rituals of entrance into the people of God (circumcision in the Old and baptism in the New), and to acknowledge our membership with His people.

Kent & Helene Howell

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Intercession – John Tucker

We again express in prayer our gratitude to God for what he has done and ask him to continue to act for our good and the good of others in our community & world.

(Children, Infants – Kindergarten, are dismissed for Kid's Worship.)

Proclamation of God's Word – Josh Floyd, Assistant Pastor of Youth & Families at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church of Orlando

A small portion of God's Word is explained to us and applied to our lives and circumstances.

Songs of Response

We respond to the good news of God's mercy and grace by singing again of his goodness and greatness.

Come Holy Spirit, Come

Words and Music by Adam W. Davidson, some text adapted from Veni Creator Spiritus, 9th century

©2014 Grubby Paws Music, LLC used by permission

Come Spirit, come Creator blest
In our souls take up your rest
Come with grace and truth and heav'nly aid
Fill our hearts up with your praise

O Comforter, to you we cry
O heavenly gift of God Most High
O fount of life and fire of love
Our anointing from above
Sweet anointing from above

Come Holy Spirit, come
Burn in our hearts the fire from above
Sent by the Father and the Son
Fill us with power and with your love

Our presence of the Father true
And our promise of the Son
Our souls washed clean, our hearts renewed
And our hope of heaven won

Our Counselor, speak through the Word
Give us wisdom, grant us grace
Let your glory on our lips be heard
As we sing and shout your praise
In every nation, every race
Come Holy Spirit...

Come Spirit, come Creator blest
In our souls take up your rest
Come with grace and truth and heav'nly aid
Fill our hearts up with your praise
Let us sing and shout your praise
Come Holy Spirit...

Let Your Kingdom Come

by Bob Kauflin © 2006 Sovereign Grace Praise (BMI), used by permission, CCLI# 1693489

Your glorious cause, O God, engages our hearts
May Jesus Christ be known wherever we are
We ask not for ourselves, but for your renown
The cross has saved us so we pray
Your kingdom come

Let your kingdom come
Let your will be done
So that everyone might know your name
Let your song be heard everywhere on earth
Till your sovereign work on earth is done
Let your kingdom come

Give us your strength, O God, and courage to speak
Perform your wondrous deeds through those who are weak
Lord use us as you want, whatever the test
By grace we'll preach your gospel
Till our dying breath

Let your kingdom come...

Benediction

Because the hand of God's wrath was raised against Jesus we now receive the hand of God's blessing as we are sent out to live our lives to the glory of God.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

2 Corinthians 13:14 (ESV)

Seasons of the Cross

White between Easter and Pentecost: The colors of the various seasons of the Christian year express the mood or feeling of that season. White is the color of celebration. The Messiah has come, the suffering servant, conquering sin and death. The believers gather together to rejoice, to pray, to meditate and to await the coming of the Holy Spirit as Christ promised.

Scripture Passage and Sermon Outline

Proclamation of God's Word

Text: Acts 2:1-4, 6-8, 11-17, 21-25, 32-39, 41 (ESV)
Title: : Promise of The Spirit
Teacher: Josh Floyd

1 When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. 2 And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. 3 And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.
6 And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. 7 And they were amazed and astonished, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language?
11 Both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God." 12 And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" 13 But others mocking said, "They are filled with new wine." 14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them: "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. 15 For these people are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. 16 But this is what was uttered through the prophet Joel: 17 "'And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams;
21 And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.' 22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know—23 this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. 24 God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. 25 For David says concerning him, "'I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken;
32 This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. 33 Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing. 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, "'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, 35 until I make your enemies your footstool."' 36 Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." 37 Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" 38 And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself."
41 So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

FULFILLMENT OF GOD'S PROPHECY

FULFILLMENT OF GOD'S PLAN

FULFILLMENT OF GOD'S PROMISE

YOU CAN PRAY WITH US...

1. Praise God for His power, goodness, sovereignty and His love for humanity by pouring out His Spirit on his people. Praise the Father (who sent the Son), the Son (who works salvation for us) and the Holy Spirit (who applies salvation to us)!
2. Do you believe that it was your sin that held Jesus to the cross? Do you believe that you were so bad off that Jesus had to die so that you could be forgiven? Confess areas in which your heart still struggles with doubt and disbelief?
3. Give thanks to God for His mercy in not leaving us in our sin and rebellion! Thank Him that the promise of forgiveness of sins and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit are available to us (and our children)!
4. Peter gives a succinct presentation of the gospel to an audience made up of primarily unbelievers. Whom in your life (where you live, work and play) is the Holy Spirit nudging you to befriend, to engage and to warmly share why you personally needed Jesus to die for you?
5. Ask the Holy Spirit to bring healing to areas of woundedness, doubt and fear in your own heart. Ask that the Spirit increases our faith and reminds us of how God's fulfillment of biblical prophecy, his plan of salvation and his promise to his covenant people should move us to a place of heart-felt appreciation, confidence and encouragement.
