Coming in Peace
Luke 2:13 - 14

I. Consider _____

> "The webbing together of God, humans, and all creation in justice, fulfillment, and delight is what the Hebrew prophets call shalom. We call it peace, but it means far more than mere peace of mind or a cease fire between enemies…In the Bible, shalom means universal flourishing, wholeness and delight...Shalom, in other words, is the way things ought to be.
>
> Cornelius Plantinga - Not the Way It's Supposed to Be

a. We have peace with _____ (Romans 5:1)

b. We have peace with _____ (Ephesians 2:14 – 18)

c. We have peace with _____ (Philippians 4:7)

d. We have peace with _____(Colossians 1:19 – 20)

II. Understand _____

III. Embrace _____

©The Chapel | Kenmore 2016

Coming in Peace
Luke 2:13 - 14

I. Consider the message of peace

> "The webbing together of God, humans, and all creation in justice, fulfillment, and delight is what the Hebrew prophets call shalom. We call it peace, but it means far more than mere peace of mind or a cease fire between enemies…In the Bible, shalom means universal flourishing, wholeness and delight...Shalom, in other words, is the way things ought to be.
>
> Cornelius Plantinga - Not the Way It's Supposed to Be

a. We have peace with God (Romans 5:1)

b. We have peace with One Another (Ephesians 2:14 – 18)

c. We have peace with Ourselves (Philippians 4:7)

d. We have peace with All Creation (Colossians 1:19 – 20)

II. Understand the paradox of peace

III. Embrace the King of Peace

©The Chapel | Kenmore 2016