FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Exposition of 2 Samuel: A New King for Israel #3

“KING DAVID”

Food for Thought (June 3-8)

Monday: Read 2 Samuel 2:1-11 Review your notes from yesterday’s sermon.

What was most helpful to you about yesterday’s sermon? _____

What difference will it make in your life? _____

Tuesday: Read 2 Samuel 2:1-2a How do these verses show David’s devotion to the Lord?

Can you honestly say that you seek the Lord’s will in this way? _____

About what should you be consulting Him today? Do so now, expecting Him to lead you.

Wednesday: Read 2 Samuel 2:2b-4a How do these verses show David’s concern for people? _____

Why is this important? _____

Do you love and respect the people nearest to you (family, friends, fellow believers)? How can you improve? _____

Thursday: Read 2 Samuel 2:4b-7 Why could David’s actions be perceived as surprising?

Why were they very wise? _____

How might this apply to you? _____

Friday: Read 2 Samuel 2:8-11 How do Abner’s actions contrast with David’s? _____

Why are they foolish? _____

These two approaches represent two ways to walk. Ask the Lord, through His Spirit to help you walk with Him.

Saturday: Read 2 Samuel 2:12-3:5 in preparation for tomorrow’s worship service. Write down any observation or questions that arise as you read the text. Please pray for the Lord’s blessing on the services.
